COMPETITION COMMISSION

Alpha Flight Group / LSG Lufthansa merger inquiry: Disclosures of Interest

Malcolm Nicholson was a partner at Slaughter and May until 30 April 2009. Whilst at Slaughter and May, Malcolm Nicholson advised British Airways on certain regulatory issues related to airports. His last involvement was in 2007. He also advised Thomas Cook on competition matters. He never advised them in relation to airline catering. His last involvement was in 2008.

Malcolm Nicholson has no on-going consultancy or other professional relationship with Slaughter and May. On retirement, his contractual entitlement to repayment of his partnership capital crystallised. It is repayable in instalments, the last of which is to be paid next April 2012.

The CC is satisfied that the impartiality of the inquiry will not be affected by any of the above.

www.competition-commission.org.uk/our_peop/members/index.htm.

9 December 2011