Hello

I know that the Arts Picturehouse in Cambridge was sold to Cineworld last year and now it seems that it might close, along with that in Bury St Edmunds. I go to the Arts a great deal especially for opera and theatre screenings and if I cannot get a ticket in Cambridge I go to Bury St Edmunds.

Please reconsider and keep the Arts Picturehouse in Cambridge as a viable picturehouse.

It would be wonderful to have it as an independent venture that is committed to showing arts screening.

The staff and general level of service at the Arts in Cambridge is great and far beyond that in any other cinema I have visited.

Many people use and value the Arts Picturehouse in Cambridge, please find an arrangement that will keep it for our community, it is such a valuable resource, far more than other cinemas

Thank you

A Morris
