Attn. The Monopolies Commission.

I can see no reason to sell off a cinema which mainly shows a completely different programme to other local cinemas.

To ensure that there is no possible Cineworld monopoly, it would be easy enough to alter the programme of the Picture house so it would not pose any extra competition to other cinemas.

The Picturehouse offering is so completely different to Vue and Cineworld in both Bury and Cambridge anyway!

I strongly support the retention of both the Bury and Cambridge Picturehouse cinemas.
