GLOBAL / GMG MERGER INQUIRY

Third Party response to the provisional findings

We are a very small agency, dealing mainly with radio advertising.

We only have one local, commercial radio station in our area, and we rarely place advertising outside of this area.

If, at any time, radio became too expensive for our clients, we would certainly re-consider the best alternatives to ensure our clients continue to receive what we think, is the best value for money.