Dear Mr Doyle

Anglo American (Tarmac)/Lafarge Merger

I would like to acknowledge receipt of your letter dated 21 September 2011 regarding the above merger.

I can confirm that BOCM PAULS has sourced certain limestone products from Tarmac of feed grade quality that is used in the formulation of animal feed products. BOCM PAULS is a leading supplier of animal feed to livestock farmers in the UK.

There are a number of suppliers of limestone products and the business we have done with Tarmac is insignificant, amounting to the purchase of less than        tonnes of material with a value of less than

In our view the merger of Anglo American (Tarmac) and Lafarge will have no bearing on our ability to source limestone products competitively.

Yours sincerely
