 - (ii) as a result, the condition specified in section 23(3) of the Act will prevail to a greater extent, with respect to the supply in the United Kingdom of alginate fibre; and
 - (b) the creation of that situation may be expected to result in a substantial lessening of competition within any market or markets in the United Kingdom for goods or services namely the supply in the United Kingdom of alginate fibre which is used in the manufacture of alginate dressings.
2. Now, therefore, the OFT, in exercise of its duty under section 33 of the Act, hereby refers to the Commission, for investigation and report within a period ending on 28 July 2004, the following questions in accordance with section 36 of the Act-
 - (a) whether arrangements are in progress or in contemplation as described in paragraph 1 which, if carried into effect, will result in the creation of a relevant merger situation; and
 - (b) if so, whether the creation of that situation may be expected to result in a substantial lessening of competition within any market or markets in the United Kingdom.
3. In relation to the question whether a relevant merger situation will be created, the Commission shall exclude from consideration one of the subsections (1) and (2) of section 23 of the Act if they find that the other is satisfied.
